

Crossfields Institute Level 3 SOCIAL PEDAGOGY Diploma

JOIN OUR 2018 OPEN COURSE – INVITATION TO SIGN UP

Social Pedagogy connects care and education through relationship-centred practice. Its central idea is that every person has inherent potential, is resourceful and valuable and can make a meaningful contribution if we find ways of including them.

CENTRAL LONDON
(venue to be confirmed)

Starting in September
2018

QUALIFICATION OVERVIEW

- Crossfields Institute Ofqual regulated, 47 credits
- Information day to meet the facilitators
- 8 days of group learning and development
- Experiential and reflective
- Online resources and learning environment
- Approximately 400 hours of self-guided learning
- Staggered submission of assignments
- A variety of assessment methods
- Takes approximately 9 months

The full qualification specification is available at: <http://www.sppa-uk.org>

WHO IS THE QUALIFICATION FOR?

Practitioners in a wide range of settings across care and education, for example:

- Residential and foster care
- Services for care leavers
- Early childhood
- Youth justice
- Supported living for adults
- Early help and family support

A dynamic, supportive group learning environment

- An information day to meet facilitators and peers, with an introduction to the online learning platform
- Four sets of two consecutive days of experiential and reflective learning and development
- One face-to-face assessment and written and creative assessments to submit online
- A supportive toolkit of: learner plan, learner handbook, social pedagogy pocket book and more

For further information and/or an application form and Terms and Conditions, please contact abby@jacaranda-development.co.uk

We are holding regular Question and Answer sessions on Skype, please contact us for dates if you would like to participate to find out more.